

War May Continue In 1945

Official States Five Million Men Will be Overseas By End of Year

WASHINGTON, June 20 —(P)—Lt. Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, deputy chief of staff, won't predict when the war will end. And, although this country will have an overseas fighting force of 5,000,000 men by the end of the year, "the movement will likely continue at a high rate during 1945."

McNarney's testimony before the Senate Appropriations committee considering a House-approved $49,107,785,795 measure to finance the War Department during the fiscal year starting July 1 was made public today.

"I wish I could tell you how long it will take us to liberate Europe and to crush our foes in the Pacific," he told the senators, but "no man can at this moment predict with accuracy the time it will take."

"I can assure you, however, that as our forces go into battle, they have every advantage which it has been humanly possible to provide. That they will win is certain. We hope that it can be done in the minimum amount of time with the minimum number of casualties, and at the minimum expense."

Historic Army

"We have today the greatest army the United States has ever mobilized. It is well-trained, equipped with superior weapons, and deployed world-wide. It is now definitely on the offensive on all fronts."

McNarney said the 3,698,000 soldiers now deployed outside the United States exceed by more than 1,600,000 men the peak overseas strength in World War I and are only 350,000 men short of equaling the entire strength of the army at the close of the last war.

The officer testified that the army is making every effort to keep boys out of overseas infantry service until they are at least 19.

McNarney said, "I have a rule in the army ground forces that no young man under 19 years of age assigned to the infantry, will be sent overseas. If he is in an artillery unit or service unit that rule does not apply."

In some instances, he said, younger men were taken from replacement training centers and sent overseas but that was because of enforced demands at the front and the fact that selective service did not call or furnish 18-year-olds for several months.

On Vital Jobs, Or be Drafted

ST. LOUIS, June 20—(P)—Men in the 30-to-38 age group who have shifted from vital to nonessential jobs recently probably will become subject to military draft soon, Maj. Fred C. Richardson, occupational deferment officer for the St. Louis area said today.

He added that Col. Claude C. Earp, state selective service administrator, is expected to direct local boards within the next few days to begin drafting any men under 38 who have forfeited their deferment by taking nonessential jobs.

Major Richardson explained that in the past 30 to 60 days there has been an increasing number of workers leaving vital jobs for places offering long time postwar employment.

Court Right Is Challenged

JEFFERSON CITY, June 20—(P)—Challenging the authority of a county court to adjudicate any person insane, a Kansas City lawyer today filed an application for a writ of habeas corpus in the state supreme court seeking release of four patients from the state's mental hospital No. 2 at St. Joseph.

The lawyer, Roy N. DeVault, said three of his clients — Russell Downey, Ruth McLaughlin and Ira Lee — were committed to the hospital by the county court of Jackson county. He said he did not know in what county the other client, George Kimmell, was committed.

DeVault contended only the probate court has authority to adjudicate a person insane and attacked the constitutionality of a 1909 law which authorizes commitment of poor persons who are county court patients to state hospitals by county courts.

Meters Become Property of City July 1

Paid for Themselves, Nice Source of Revenue for City

July 1, the parking meters in the downtown area will become the sole property of the City of Sedalia. On this date the final installment on the meters is to be paid, amounting to $481.46. The original contract for the meters was $17,100, of which, since July 1941, $16,618.54 has already been paid to the meter company, which installed the meters in July of the above mentioned year.

The meters since July 1941 until June 1, 1944, have taken in $22,134.72, of which the city has received $5,516.18 as its part of the revenue. In accordance with the city's report the meters have averaged year-around $651.02, in pennies and nickels.

When the meters were first installed there were 279, and later six additional ones were obtained, bringing the total to 285. Of this number two meters have been knocked over and broken, but are to be repaired.

Paid For Themselves

In the original contract the meters were to be paid for by the city's revenue through the machines, the meter company taking each month three-fourth of the revenue and the city one-fourth, until they had been completely paid for.

With the city's "take" being all of the money from July 1, it is expected the revenue will play a big part in taking up the slack in the gasoline taxes lost since the war started, due to rationing and the cutting of gasoline sales inside the city limits.

An example of the "take" of the meters for the first five months of 1944 is as follows: January, $513; February, $595; March, $799; April, $683; and May, $721; a total of $3,311.

Instead of fining parking violators who failed to put their nickel or penny in the meters when they were first installed, the violator was permitted to insert a nickel in a machine at police headquarters. But as soon as motorists were given time to become accustomed to the meter plan, a minimum fine of $1 was assessed. The violators who have had to pay $1 fines, have paid several hundred dollars into the city treasury through the police court.

The method at present is to give out-of-town visitors the privilege of placing a nickel in the machine at police headquarters, but "repeaters" are compelled to post one dollar bonds, which are forfeited if the defendant fails to appear in police court, the following day.

Bullet Strikes Boy, 8

TIPTON, Mo., June 20—While getting ready to go frog hunting Friday, a .22 calibre pistol in the hands of Thomas Kammerich, 13, was accidentally discharged, a bullet entering the side of the stomach of his 8-year-old brother, James Lee. The boy was taken to the Latham sanitarium in California, Mo., for treatment. The wound is not believed serious.

Beaman Youth Is Wounded at Anzio

Mrs. Randall Baker of Beaman has received word that her brother, S/Sgt. Wayne R. Beel, son of Walter Beel, of Beaman, was wounded by a shell fragment May 31 at Anzio beachhead. At the time he wrote the letter, four days later, he was in a hospital in Naples and his left arm and leg were paralyzed.

S/Sgt. Beel will have been in military service four years in August. He has served overseas 19 months and is in the infantry.

Will Look Over Hospital Site

WASHINGTON, June 20—(P)—The veterans administration may build a new hospital in northern Missouri or northeastern Kansas. It plans to inspect sites in both states preliminary to submitting recommendations to the federal board of hospitalization, which decides what hospitals are to be built, and where.

Inspections will be limited to cities with a population of around 15,000 or more, with one exception, Brig. Gen. Frank T. Hines, veterans administrator advised Missouri and Kansas members of congress today.

He said that L. A. Warren of the administration would inspect sites at these cities:

Kansas — Kansas City, Topeka, Leavenworth, Atchison, Emporia, Ft. Scott and Lawrence.

Missouri — Kansas City, Hannibal, Jefferson City, St. Joseph, Sedalia, Columbia, Independence and Higginsville. The latter is the exception and Hines said consideration would be given to use of a Confederate home there.

Party Given for War Prisoners

SANTA MONICA, Calif., June 20—(P)—Prisoners of war, far from their native land, still laugh when you give them a chance, says Comedienne Gracie Fields.

The Lancashire lassie and her film producer husband, Monty Banks, provided the opportunity in the form of a swimming, dining and dancing party for some 70 Italian war prisoners because, she explained with a chuckle today:

"If I can get people to laugh and smile, that's what I like to do."

The guests progressively smiled, laughed — then sang. They were from a labor battalion. They have sworn allegiance to this country and they aren't guarded or encircled by barbed wire, but for these veterans of Tunisia and Lybia the party was their first in three, five or more years.

Banks, born Mario Bianchi in Italy, donned an apron, prepared and served spaghetti, salami, smoked fish, turkey, salad and raviolis. He poured, too, the red and white wine.

The prisoners told Banks their treatment as war captives was wonderful. "This country," said one, "is heaven."

Wallace Guest In Chungking, War Capital

Met at Airdrome by Mr. Chiang Kai-Shek And Mrs. Chiang

By Spencer Moosa
CHUNGKING, June 20—(P)—Vice-President Wallace, visiting China as the personal representative of President Roosevelt, arrived in this war capital today and immediately urged closer relations between China and Siberia.

The vice-president, in a statement distributed at the airport after his arrival from Russian territory, quoted Dr. Hu Shih, former Chinese ambassador to the United States, as having said that the boundary between Siberia and China "should be like the frontier between the United States and Canada—not one of separation but one of joining friends together."

His Plans
Wallace said he wanted to see the land, talk with farmers, visit Chinese and American soldiers and above all discuss with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek "matters of mutual interest and concern."

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek welcomed Wallace at the airdrome—a high compliment not required by protocol, since the generalissimo is the head of the state. Mrs. Chiang also was at the airdrome, but remained in a curtained motor car. Wallace, Generalissimo Chiang and U. S. Ambassador Clarence E. Gauss boarded the car after the vice-president had shaken hands with the assembled notables, and drove to the presidential villa for tea.

DNB, German agency, put out this report today:
"American Vice-President Wallace, suddenly changing his original plan to travel to Chungking, is now on his way to Moscow, it was learned from a reliable source. German political circles believe that there is a connection between his visit to Moscow and the United States' desire to obtain from the Soviet Union certain naval bases for battle against Japan."

Governor Speaks Here June 30

Governor Forrest C. Donnell, candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator, will speak in Sedalia at 7:00 p. m. on Friday, June 30.

The governor, who is a vigorous and experienced campaigner, is widely known in Missouri having been acting politically in this state since 1908. In his campaign for governor in 1940, he spoke in each of the 114 counties of Missouri and visited many of the counties more than one time.

Submarine Grayback Is Overdue

Presumed Lost, Had Estimated Personnel of 65 Officers, Men

WASHINGTON, June 20 —(P)—Loss of the submarine Grayback, presumably in operations against the Japanese in the far Pacific, was announced by the navy today.

The 1,475-ton submersible carried an estimated personnel of 65 officers and men.

She was commanded by Commander John Anderson Moore, who is listed as missing in action. Moore's wife, Mrs. Virginia S. Moore, lives at 1380 Snowden avenue, Memphis, Tenn.

The loss of the Grayback, officially listed as overdue and presumed lost, brings to 24 the number of American submarines missing since December 7, 1941. Of that total, two were sunk in the Atlantic ocean during training and other maneuvers and one was destroyed to prevent capture. The others all are listed as overdue and presumed lost.

The navy never tells where submarines operated on their last war patrols. However, most action by American submersibles has been in the Pacific, many of them operating along Japan's shore lines and against enemy shipping.

Sink Many Jap Ships

Against the total of 24 submarines lost since the war started, the submersibles have built up a record of 758 Japanese ships sunk, probably sunk or damaged. The total includes 607 definitely sent to the bottom.

Among the enemy vessels accounted for by subs are a number of warships, although the submersibles' activities have been directed principally against enemy supply lines for Japanese garrisons in the Pacific. The subs have been credited by Admiral King, commander in chief of U. S. fleet, with operations that could determine the course of the war in the Pacific.

US On To Cherbourg; Battle In The Pacific

Japanese Claim 300 American Planes Destroyed, Four Ships Sunk

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor, June 20 — (P) — American carrier pilots and warship guns have destroyed an estimated 300 Japanese planes off Saipan to win the biggest Pacific air battle since Midway, while a land surge captured a vital airstrip and sealed off the southern end of the island.

In a vicious battle lasting several hours, the offshore task force smashed a sustained Japanese aerial assault Sunday. Admiral Chester W. Nimitz said first information reported only one American vessel damaged.

(Imperial Japanese headquarters declared, without confirmation that 300 American planes were destroyed and a battleship, two cruisers, a destroyer and one submarine were sunk during the battle. A broadcast enemy communique also said Japanese airmen were still attacking the American ships.

(This claim may have been a follow-up to a Tokyo broadcast promising "that the Japanese navy in the near future will win a great naval victory in the Central Pacific.")

With the land battle still raging to their north and southwest, Sea-Bears began preparing the newly-captured Asitolo airstrip, on Saipan's southern coast—the first American air base within Japan's Central Pacific middle defense arc. Its capture climaxed the long drive toward air bases strategically dominating the oceanic approaches to Tokyo.

Pushing through tangled cane-fields and swamps, American marines and army troops traversed the island on a wide front to reach Magicienne bay on the east coast, 3 1/2 miles from the western landing beach.

The Japanese aerial thrust—their biggest since Midway—included some planes apparently based on distant carriers and using nearby shore bases for shuttle landings, the U. S. communique said.

It added that systematic American bombing and strafing of airfields on Guam and Rota "sharply limited" the effectiveness of the Japanese shuttle land fields.

PSC Decision Blocks Sale

JEFFERSON CITY, June 20—(P)—A deal for the sale of the Missouri Power and Light company of Jefferson City, Mo., — in which it would buy the Maryville Electric Company — has fallen through because the prospective buyer balked at the terms laid down by the public service commission.

The commission approved the sale but would not let the purchaser, the Continental Gas and Electric company of Chicago, charge up to operating expenses an account of $1,088,941 representing the difference between the original cost of Missouri Power and Light's properties and the price paid for them.

To do so, the PSC declared, would force consumers to bear the cost of the excess payments because operating expenses are reflected in rates.

When the commission ordered Continental to charge the $1,088,941 to its own accounts, the corporation rejected the proffered permission to make the purchase.

Under the proposed transaction, the Maryville company would have been sold to the Missouri Power and Light company, which in turn would have been sold by the North American Light and Power company to Continental.

Invasion Highlights

NEW YORK, June 20—(P)—Radio France at Algiers said today in a broadcast to French areas that the Germans had transported "large quantities" of poison gas from Germany into Hungary "with a view to using it against the Soviet army, from whom they dread a new and powerful offensive."

The broadcast, reported by United States government monitors, said the information had been received from the Balkans via Ankara. It added that a "German official paper" on June 2 had published "detailed instructions concerning the transport and handling of poison gases."

LONDON, June 20—(P)—Snap-shooting anti-aircraft gunners and relays of swooping fighter pilots blasted dozens of Nazi robot planes out of the sky overnight and the Allies appeared to be getting the range on this new weapon today, the sixth day of the "buzz-bomb" blitz.

The Germans tried a handful of the comet bombs June 13 but did not set the sustained attack going until June 15.

In one district alone four flying bombs were shot down by night fighters within a few minutes. Three exploded in the air in quick succession.

The Germans were launching the robots in no particular order. Sometimes as many as five came over almost together.

STOCKHOLM, June 20—(P)—

Twenty-one American heavy bombers from fleets raiding Germany today made forced landings in Sweden, the greatest number to land in this neutral country in a single day.

Sixteen came down at Bulltofta airport at Malmo, with one reported crashing and killing six crewmen. Three others crashed in southwestern Sweden, and two planes landed outside Halstad.

COMMUNIQUE No. 29 from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters said other American columns to the east were driving forward

Doughboys Occupy Montebourg, Others Driving Forward to Flank Valognes

LONDON, June 20—(P)—Berlin radio said tonight Allied forces "have reached the fortified area of the town" of Cherbourg.

"Their spearheads already are in contact with the German defenders," the enemy broadcast added.

By Wes Gallagher

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, June 20—(P)—

American troops plunged within four miles of Cherbourg late today in an all-out offensive of mounting fury, and also seized Valognes, 10 miles southeast of the great harbor.

The veteran U. S. Ninth Division spearheaded the deepest drive directly south of Cherbourg—a death pocket for perhaps up to 50,000 Nazis—advancing to St. Martin Le Grand only four miles away.

On the southeast approach to the trans-Atlantic port, other doughboys seized Valognes and pushed a mile beyond, and cleaned the Germans out of by-passed Montebourg, four miles from Valognes.

The Germans were falling back upon the inner perimeter of Cherbourg's defenses. Associated Press Correspondent Roger Greene said in a dispatch from U. S. field headquarters. He added the Germans "fell back from Valognes "without attempting a major stand."

The power drive directly south of Cherbourg carried the Ninth division battering ram nearly six miles north of captured Bricquebec.

On the eastern coast of the trap tightening steadily on Cherbourg, an American column drove two miles north of Quineville.

Montebourg, won and lost by the Yanks in bitter street fighting and then by-passed in the push to Valognes, now has been completely occupied, Supreme Headquarters said.

Beat Off Counter Attacks

Toward the eastern flank of the long Normandy front, British forces battling against a wall of Nazi armor struck two miles southwest of Till-sur-Seuilles and seized Hotot-les-Bagues. Two Nazi counterattacks aimed at taking the town were beaten back.

U. S. forces on the west coast also made progress north of Barneville, where the first breakthrough was made sealing off the top of Cherbourg peninsula. Opposition in this sector was reported light.

The Germans have three semi-circular defense lines around Cherbourg, with the biggest stretching out six miles from the port. Lt. Gen. Omar N. Bradley's offensive has pierced deep through this line and apparently has reached the second defense wall.

Air reconnaissance disclosed the Germans have been demolishing the port of Cherbourg and that it is in bad shape, indicating they had given up hope of holding it for very long.

There were indications the Germans were weaker on the western side of the peninsula than in the east. Heavy fighting has raged in the Montebourg-Valognes sector.

Great Air Effort

The all-out Cherbourg drive was coupled with what appeared to be the greatest air effort since the first days of the invasion and more than

merry-go-round

by Drew Pearson

The entire world, including Marshal Stalin, who himself is something of a military strategist, has now acclaimed the brilliant work of General Dwight Eisenhower in executing the second front. But here is how far-sighted the Washington Merry-Go-Round was, way back in 1941. On Oct. 2 of that year, nearly three years ago, the Merry-Go-Round reported:

"Chief among the army's younger aces is Col. Dwight Eisenhower, who has a steel-trap mind plus unusual physical vigor. To him the military profession is a science and he began watching and studying the German army 5 years ago.

"Eisenhower's deputy chief of staff is another crack army brain-truster, Lt. Col. Al Gruenther. Both Eisenhower and Gruenther are destined for bigger things in the army."

Lt. Col. Gruenther, now a major general, is chief of staff to the Fifth Army in Italy and the man who, under General Mark Clark, planned the strategy which broke the Nazi line.

WASHINGTON, June 20—Now that the invasion is under way, some inside light can be thrown on General Marshall's alleged labor baiting press conference which reverberated all over the country last December. Whether or not you agreed with Gen. Marshall at the time, there was no question that his statement was bitterly resented by labor. Labor chiefs protested at the White House.

However, what could not be explained at the time was this. The chief of staff had just returned to Washington from the Tehran conference, at which it is now known that vitally important decisions were made for a second front. Those decisions mean that, beginning a few days after Christmas, the army would begin the movement of several hundred thousand men (the number must still remain secret) to the seaboard for shipment to England. The movement of those troops would put a terrific burden on the railroads.

General Marshall was one of the few men who knew about this. Coming back to Washington, he found the country on the verge of a railroad strike which might tie up its entire transportation system around January 1, just as the big movement of troops was scheduled to start.

That was why he felt so wrought up, and why he delivered his press conference blast accusing labor of delaying the war.

Judge Vinson Hollers

A labor delegation was calling on Senator "Happy" Chandler of Kentucky recently when Happy picked up the telephone to answer a call from Economic Stabilizer Fred Vinson, also from Kentucky.

Vinson was asking Senator Chandler to vote with the administration against the Bankhead amendment to the price control bill, explaining that the amendment in his opinion seriously mutilated price control.

"When I was appointed to this job," said Judge Vinson, "you came around and you patted me on the back and you shook hands and you told me, 'Now, if you ever want anything from me, just you holler.'"

However, the senator from Kentucky turned a deaf ear, indicated that he would vote against Vinson and for the Bankhead amendment.

"All right," said Judge Vinson, as he hung up, "but I just want you to know that I hollered."

Pensions for Executives

Senator Bob Taft of Ohio isn't advertising it yet, but close friends say he is fed up on the gilt edge pension racket of certain of his big business friends.

The pension dodge is a plan whereby big corporation executives don't take all of their salary now, but have part of it set aside as a pension fund, payable when they retire. This means

God's Front Porch

A Novel By KETTI FRINGS

Pinky Harrison was one of those who was sure he was not going to die. He was so young and there was Martha and the baby that would be born any day now and besides, he hadn't been out there long enough to learn to be afraid. Which was why he clambered over the top of the foxhole even after he had been warned not to.

The corporal's uniform was white and he beckoned to Pinky and the wounded soldier to follow him. Pinky didn't want to, especially when he recognized the avastika armband the other soldier was wearing, but there wasn't much he could do about it.

III

It was all a little hazy, foggy. Pinky knew that he was in a train now, though. He felt the motion of it under him and the old-fashioned plush of the seat as his hand rested on it. Clouds streamed in the window, and the train was moving up. He felt the pull of the engine.

He was the very training of the car itself. But it couldn't be. He was too young to go, he kept telling himself. God couldn't have sent for him yet. But what then?

If he closed his eyes and didn't look at the people around him, he had no fears at all about the trip. With his eyes closed, he heard only the train whistle. It was a whistle he'd recognize anywhere. Two short blasts, followed by a half-mournful little toot. That was the train down home, the Elm City run. He remembered how it ran along the canal.

But the people on that train were always people you knew. Here, in the car, he knew only the German. They sat, side by side, not looking at each other or speaking.

Across from them sat a girl, Emily Keenan, she'd said her name was. She had a big envelope-like handbag, and it wasn't really a handbag, because one side of it flipped back and became a writing portfolio. She was writing on it now. She had said she was a war correspondent.

that their companies can deduct the pension fund from the companies' taxes now and the executive doesn't have to pay any taxes on the pension until some years hence when he receives it, at which time taxes (we hope) will be lower.

In some cases, pensions have been set aside running up to future payments of $50,000 a year. Since most manufacturers are busy on war contracts, this means that the government really pays the pension.

Senator Taft was persuaded to

"Miss Keenan, what are you doing?" Rion asked.

She laughed delightedly, as though it were the most amusing joke. "Wish" could get this dispatch through—it would kill them. "Somewhere in Heaven: After traveling through dense clouds all day—"

"Are you so sure that where we are, Miss Keenan?" Rion asked. "Make your own deductions. The only reason your friend 'ere doesn't believe it is that he doesn't want to go yet. Right, Corporal?"

Pinky wasn't really listening, but he knew that she had addressed him, so he nodded. "Guess you're the same way," she continued, looking again at Rion.

"No, quite the contrary." The German seemed suddenly to be sighing. "I'm glad to see you're tired. 'Yes' is a very tired word. It's a moment, crinkly, as she studied him a moment. 'Yes, I guess you are.'"

THE train slowed down, stopped, but only for an instant, then the bell clanged and the whistle tooted, and they were on their way again.

The new passenger who came stumbling down the aisle, lugging a heavy suitcase, was short and middle-aged and Jewish.

He eyed the empty seat beside Miss Keenan, said his name was Caterwall, and might be sitting down? "Caterwall?" Miss Keenan repeated. "That's an odd name. Please do sit down. I'm Emily Keenan." She moved over to make room for him, though he still stood awkwardly in the aisle.

"What nationality is Caterwall?" she asked with a slight smile. "I'm not sure," the Jew admitted. Then, with an engaging frankness, he added: "I just adopted it. I read it some place. I thought it might be a little easier to do business with than my own."

"Oh, I see."

"Not what you think," he said, noting her smile. "I'm not ashamed of being a Jew, only it . . . well, it helps sometimes not to be."

"But that is what I meant," Miss Keenan said, and she was still smiling. But it was a nice smile, warm and friendly, not critical.

Pinky, as he watched her, for the first time found himself liking her.

Then suddenly Miss Keenan looked puzzled. "Where did you get that luggage?" she asked, as Caterwall stretched and strained and grew purple, trying to hoist his suitcase up to the luggage rack.

"Where did I get it? Doesn't most everybody travel with luggage?"

"Normally, yes, but—"

"Not that I haven't had plenty of difficulty with it!" Mr. Caterwall now mopped his brow and sat down. "No service anymore, nothing! Had to carry it all the way myself." He put his handkerchief away and turned to Emily, gesturing notably with his hands.

"There I am, finally, with a seat on the Clipper . . ." Suddenly Mr. Caterwall's vision adjusted itself to a long-range view of the car. He stared, blinked, stared again. "Miss Keenan!"

"What's the matter?"

"Quick, quick—where's the brake cord?"

"Take it easy, Mr. Caterwall. 'Haven't you seen, haven't you looked? This car is filled with Nazis and Japs and God-knows-what kind of people. Pull the brake cord. I'm getting off.'"

He was stepping all over their feet now, trying to reach the suitcase.

"Miss Keenan, if this is a joke—"

"No joke—and there's no brake cord either, so don't go looking for it. Mr. Caterwall, don't you know where you are? All right, look—I was going to point it out to you before. Your suit . . . it looks like it's been through a bit of salt water."

"Hmmm?" He stared down at his suit. "Maybe . . . that was kind of a splashy landing we made."

Looking Backward

Forty Years Ago

J. A. Potts, president of the board of directors of the Missouri State Fair, which will be held at Sedalia, August 15 to 19, inclusive, returned from that place the latter part of last week, says yesterday's Mexico Intelligence. Mr. Potts states that the fair has a brighter outlook than ever before. The new buildings, which include an addition to the grandstand, barns etc., are being made of brick, with tile roofs and will be completed by the opening date.

Ed O'Bannon, motorman on the West Third street electric line, had a narrow escape from being electrocuted yesterday evening. Just as his car was passing through the Quincy avenue switch, almost opposite Chas. F. Walsh's residence, lightning struck the wire about 20 feet in front of the advancing car. The lightning bolt, in the form of a huge ball of fire, traveled swiftly towards the car, and, upon reaching the trolley burst into a flame, which enveloped the headlights and severely shocked the motorman. However, he was able to continue his run.

The electric controller box some ten feet distant from the Liberty Park hotel was struck by a bolt of lightning about 6:30 o'clock last night. The current followed the line into the house, putting out of commission the electric light services.

J. West Goodwin of the Bazoos Printing company and Citizens' Alliance, is at Houston, Texas, where the street car employees of which company Walter S. Jackson, ex-city marshal here is superintendent, are on a strike and in a letter received from him this morning he says he will not be home for several days.

By Mrs. Hubert Aggler, Mrs. Oscar Dove and Mrs. Vest Streit.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Retherford had as guests at dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Decker, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Decker and family, all of Sedalia, Mrs. L. N. Decker and son, Larry, of Clinton, and A. M. Decker.

Hubert Aggler accompanied Melvin Brownfield and son, Kenneth, to Oklahoma last week on business. Grover Stephens, formerly of Clifton City, but now of Sedalia, accompanied them.

Robert Schuster of Pilot Grove spent the past week here with his sister, Mrs. Aggler and family, during Mrs. Aggler's absence.

War is heartless, little man. It doesn't give much heed to family ties. But, along with millions of other men and women in uniform, your dad is doing everything he can to keep another war from starting when you're grown up and have children of your own.

CONSTIPATION GONE WRITES INVENTOR!

"4 years' use convinces me
nothing helps like
KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN"

This true incident may bring new hope to constipation sufferers.
Read this unsolicited letter!

"Some of my friends were talking about a laxative ad in the Post. I cut in and insisted there's nothing like ALL-BRAN —and told them how it has helped keep me out of a condition I was in 4 years ago.
Then they told me the ad they were discussing was an ALL-BRAN ad—they told me I should have a medal for spreading the good news about ALL-BRAN — which had helped these friends too." W. J. Mc-Laughlin, 605 2nd No. St., Camden, N. J.

Scientists say KELLOGG'S
ALL-BRAN can really "get at"
a common cause of constipation—lack of sufficient "cellulose" elements in the diet—because it is one of Nature's most effective sources of these elements. They work by helping the friendly colonic flora to fluff up and prepare the colonic wastes for easy, natural elimination. KELLOGG'S ALL-
BRAN is not a purgative medicine—but a wholesome, gentle-acting, "regulating" food.

If you have constipation of this type, eat KELLOGG'S ALL-
BRAN or several ALL-BRAN muffins regularly. Drink plenty of water. See if you don't cheer its welcome relief. Insist on genuine
ALL-BRAN, made only by Kellogg's in Battle Creek.

1944 Wheat Harvest Is Family Affair

In contrast to the large crews that once worked in oceans of waving wheat, Kansas' 1944 harvest is proving to be strictly a family affair because of manpower shortage. On south central Kansas many of the first crews in the fields were men and their wives. Here Ray Friess, farmer near Wichita, Kas., operates binder while Mrs. Friess drives tractor. (NEA Telephoto)

Released on 'Vag' Charge

Benjamin Gilmore, who gave his address as Warsaw, was released this morning on a charge of vagrancy after Prosecuting Attorney L. J. Harned had entered a nolle in the case, which was in the court of Judge C. W. Bente, sitting as ex-officio justice of the peace.

Gilmore was arrested after he was seen by Loan W. Richardson in the yard of a neighbor and after he had looked into a window of the Richardson home, 1106 South Lamine avenue, last Friday night. There being no law governing "window peepers," a vagrancy charge was filed to hold him for further investigation.

Gilmore had approximately $30 in cash on him when picked up, and Monday he retained Fred F. Wesner as his attorney.

Gilmore was rather jubilant over his dismissal and indicated he didn't expect to stay around Sedalia much longer. While waiting to be talked to by Chief Anson Finnell, he sang a little "ditty" and whistled.

Taft Declares Bricker Is Gaining Votes

Expected Decision Wednesday on Texas Pro-FDR Delegates

By The Associated Press
A report from backers of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey that the New Yorker is the prime favorite in presidential polls ran up today against an argument by Senator Taft (R-Ohio) that the true strength of Governor John W. Bricker of Ohio has not yet been shown.

J. Russell Sprague, Republican National Committeeman for New York, in finally bringing into the open the campaign to nominate Dewey for president, said at Chicago yesterday that various polls show Dewey is "demanded" by 60 per cent of the people polled. But in a radio speech backing Bricker, Taft said in Washington last night that "popular polls are naturally unreliable" and that "equally unreliable are newspaper accounts of the attitude of various state delegations."

The senator, said that not over a fourth of the convention delegates actually are committed to any one man.

"We are here," Sprague said for himself and the New York party organization, "to draft and nominate" Dewey.

Results in Maine
In yesterday's Maine primaries, Andrew A. Pettis, president of the Portland CIO Shipyard Workers Union and a labor-endorsed Republican, won the Democratic nomination for representative from Maine's first district. He had sought nomination by both parties but the GOP renominated Rep. Robert Hale.

A Texas Supreme Court decision is expected tomorrow on a request by pro-Roosevelt Democrats that the court invalidate the customary method of choosing presidential electors by convention.

This group, which wants its own electors on the July 22 primary ballot, bolted the state convention which made its electors only conditionally pledged to the party's nominees.

Senator O'Daniel (D-Tex), administration critic, said in a Chicago press conference yesterday that "in line with the New Deal's policy to do most everything wrong" he expects the party's national convention to seat the pro-Roosevelt set of delegates from Texas.

Leaving Leavenworth he was met in Kansas City by his aunt, Mrs. Ed Cole of Nevada. He accompanied her to that city and spent two days there visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Nellie Cotterman and the Cole family.

in twin moves to flank Valognes, ten miles southeast of Cherbourg, after sweeping around Montebourg and cutting off isolated pockets of Germans there.

The communiques said the highway southwest to Bricquebec was cut two miles from Valognes. Supreme headquarters said that undoubtedly further advances have been made this morning, of which news has not yet arrived.

While the Americans were steadily marking up new gains, the British on their sector toward the eastern end of the beachhead once again drove the Germans from Tilly-sur-Seulles, which has changed hands several times.

The American wedge across the Cherbourg peninsula now is 16 miles at its widest point and eight miles at its narrowest.

Expanding to the north, Lt. Gen. Omar Bradley's Yankees now are racing rapidly toward the main German defense line six miles south of the port.

Matter of Hours
It was expected that a matter of hours would show the strength of these defenses and whether the Germans can manage to swing the muzzles of the port's long range guns from the sea to repel a land attack.

The German held channel islands have guns capable of shooting to the Cherbourg peninsula at extreme range, but headquarters said there is no reason to believe "they can seriously interfere with the American advance."

This morning's communiques gave a tipoff that a big American offensive had begun by reporting, "coordinated attacks all along the north front."

Gets 'Tired Of Dodging The Law'

Declaring that "I want to give myself up," a young man who gave his age as 28 years, asked police officers to hold him as an escapee from the law on three charges of serious nature, when he walked into police headquarters Monday evening shortly after seven o'clock.

Asserting that he was "tired of dodging the law," Curtis F. Keightley, told police that he is wanted in Rock Island, Ill., where he had made his home, for child abandonment, wife desertion, and evasion of income tax laws.

Officers searched his person, finding no money and no draft registration card, it was reported. He told the police, however, that he is registered with the selective service board in Warsaw, Mo.

Keightley allegedly had lived in Sedalia prior to his going to Illinois. He gave his present address as 212 1/2 South Ohio avenue, Sedalia, where he has been for some time, he said.

Officers described him as weighing about 150-160 pounds, approximately five feet 11 inches in height and of ruddy complexion. He was dressed in khaki work clothes, and was said apparently not under influence of liquor.

SAAF Gliders Defeat V-12 From K. U. 11-5

Bluejackets Realize Struggle Is Useless After 5 1/2 Innings

It took only five and a half innings of baseball for the Sedalia Army Air Field Gliders to win their game with the V-12 Navy team from the University of Kansas, driving the visiting aggregation into submission with a 11 to 5 score. The game was played at the SAAF.

The Bluejackets, realizing the struggle was hopeless, forfeited the game at that point. The Gliders launched their 11-run attack against the twirling of Saffell, who previously lost a 10 to 4 game to the Gliders in the first meeting between the two teams on May 27, in Lawrence, Kas.

Lt. Mike Feduniak, first baseman for the Gliders, enjoyed a perfect day at the plate as he homered in the fourth inning, singled twice, and accounted for six runs. T/Sgt. Russell McConnell, slugging rightfielder, hit his third homer of the season, and his second circuit blow off Saffell. McConnell homered off Saffell during his first mound performance against the Gliders.

Although S/Sgt. Roland Green yielded nine hits as compared with Saffell's eight, the Gliders consistently hammered out extra-base hits to score runners home. The Gliders nipped a budding Kansas rally in the third inning with a beautiful double play. Three straight singles filled the bases for the Kansas, but pitcher Green fielded a grounder to toss out one runner at home, and catcher Hirsch relayed to Feduniak at first, for the double putout.

The fielding gem of the game came in the second inning when Farber, shortstop for Kansas, hit a long drive to leftfield. Finley tossed in to shortstop Kelly, who threw a perfect peg to catcher Hirsch in time to tag out Farber at the plate.

Sports Roundup

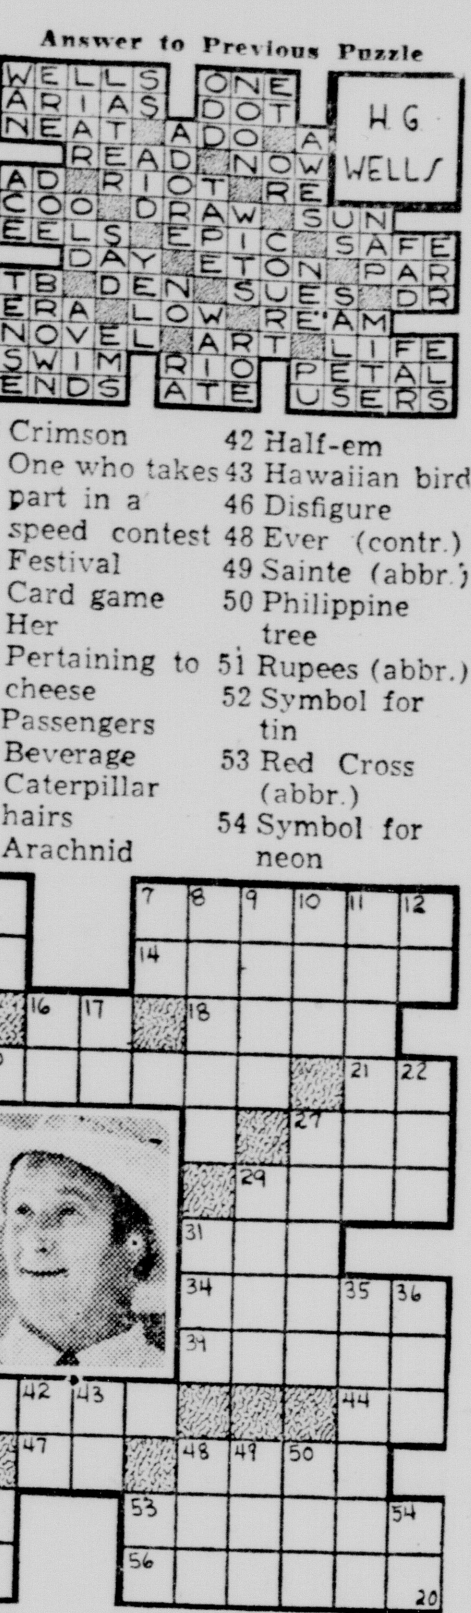

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.
NEW YORK, June 20 (AP)—Fred Early, Notre Dame halfback whose two points after touchdowns gave the Irish a 14-13 victory over the Iowa SeaHawks last fall, will enter Annapolis early in July. Must be the navy's reversal of the old saying: "If you can't lick 'em, join 'em." ... Tulane U. is planning a $150,000 swimming pool and stadium as a memorial to trainer Monk Simons who always regretted the university's lack of a men's pool. ... Cecil Tyson, the Phillies' sub first baseman, used to be a tobacco auctioneer. ... but its only out in the left field stands that you'll hear: "It's the Phillies, two to one."

Won Over
When lightweight Ike Williams first started boxing, even the dough he brought home failed to overcome his mother's objections. ... Then one day in the corner grocery she overheard a couple of neighbors discussing young Isaiah's fights. ... Said one: "He's winning a lot of fights." ... That was the clincher and Mr. Williams told Ike: "As long as you're a winning fighter, I won't stand in your way. But you gotta promise me you'll stop this business soon as folks start saying you're a losing fighter."

Jiggers, More Figgers
Charlie Sweeney, who hit .474 or Dartmouth in Eastern Intercollegiate League baseball games, piled by one time at bat to qualify for the league title. Columbia's Vince Lofredo, with .458, won't get the Charles H. Blair bat, either. The trophy was destroyed in the Princeton gym fire. At that, they have the best collegiate batting records reported so far except the .538 compiled by Weisse Michigan with only 13 at bats in a Big Ten game. ... Giants Are the Surprise Team Of Nat. League

By Ted Meier
Associated Press Sports Writer
Mel Ott's New York Giants, whose earlier five and seven-game winning streaks startled the baseball experts, still are the surprise of the National League.
The Polo Grounders climbed into a virtual tie for second place with the Pittsburgh Pirates by walloping Brooklyn, 10 to 2, last night in the day's only major league game.

The Giants now have won 30 and lost 25 games for .545 percentage. Pittsburgh officially is credited with 28 wins against 22 losses for .560. Counting another Pirate defeat, from their unfinished game of May 21 with the Phils, reduces the Pittsburgh edge to a mere four percentage points.

The May 31 game was called after eight innings with the Phils ahead 9-4.
A crowd of 25,140 paid at Ebbets Field to see the Giants walloping the Brooks for the seventh time in 11 tries. Hal Gregg, the starting Brooklyn pitcher, was stung for six runs in a big second inning that made things easy for Harry Feldman, Giant right hander.

Only one of the six runs was earned, Bobby Bragan and Dixie

Softball Games This Evening

The Twilight softball league swings into the third round this evening at Smith-Cotton high school. The first two rounds have been marked by close scores and competition strong on the part of each team.

The Sedalia Army Air Field officers team meet the Sacred Heart aggregation on the south diamond; Pepsi-Cola vs. Rosenthals on the north diamond, both games at 6:15 o'clock; The USO meet the Missouri-Pacific Reclaimers on the north diamond as soon as the game on that diamond is completed.

Standing of the League:

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Pepsi-Cola	2	0	1.000
S.A.A.F. Officers	1	0	1.000
U. S. O.	1	0	1.000
Sacred Heart	1	1	.500
Rosenthals	1	1	.500
Mo. Pac. Carmen	1	1	.500

Walker contributing two costly errors. Sandwiched around the misplays were two walks and singles by Gus Mancuso, Map Reyes, Joe Medwick and Billy Jurgens. Feldman batted in a seventh run in the next inning and battled Brooklyn's relief twirler, Cal McLish, on even terms the rest of the way.

A scheduled afternoon game between Washington and the New York Yankees was rained out. The other clubs had an open date.

The poems:

The Flag

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America. The flag is proudly flying overhead In honor of the living and the dead. Let it never touch the ground And may Freedom soon sound. Your flag and my flag and half the world around— It shall always fly forever over its sacred ground. This flag is mine and long may it wave Over the true and the brave. The stars so blue which will be true And guide a way always for you.

Hurrah for the grand old flag That Betsy Ross made from a rag. The flag to wave over the land of the free— O, long may it wave Over Hitler's grave.

After singing the national anthem, the club was dismissed.

The July meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. S. G. Monsees, route two.

Lift Travel Ban On Diplomats

LONDON, June 20—(P)—The foreign office lifted Monday night the pre-invasion ban on diplomats' travel and restrictions on their communications.

Facilities had been suspended for the transmission of cypher telegrams and diplomatic bags, and members of diplomatic missions were not allowed to leave Britain under the terms of restrictions imposed April 17.

The United States, Britain and the dominions and Soviet Russia were exempt from the regulations during the two-month period, but a few exceptions were made for other nations. Gen. Charles De Gaulle, French leader, came to London and left there; and Premier Mikolajczyk of the Polish government-in-exile, visited the United States.

Cancel Plans To Rebuild Big Ship

NEW YORK, June 20—(P)—Shortages of manpower and critical materials have caused cancellation of plans to re-build the U. S. S. LaFayette, formerly the luxury liner Normandie, which burned and sank at her pier in February, 1942, the navy department announced Monday.

After the giant ship, refitted for use as a troop transport, had been raised at a cost of $3,750,000, her hull was repaired and she was taken to the Todd shipyards in Brooklyn, where the ship rests today.

Future plans for reconstructing the ship have not been announced by the navy, which said that manpower and materials which could have been used to refit the LaFayette have been diverted to more urgent needs.

Ahead of Schedule In War On Japs

SPOKANE, Wash., June 20—(P)—Brig. Gen. Ray L. Owens, who commanded the 13th air force in the south Pacific from last June until January, told the Chronicle in an interview Monday the American forces are months ahead of schedule in the war against the Japanese in the Pacific.

"The south Pacific is completely cleaned up in the air," he declared.

The general, home on leave, said that "when we first went down there it looked anything but good," and added:

"The progress in the Pacific is must better than we had hoped for. While the opposition has been stiff, we are ahead of schedule—months ahead."

Guadalcanal now is so far behind the front line "it is as safe as Kansas City," although it was bombed as late as the first of this year, he said.

John J. O'Brien Is Night Chief

Several Matters Up Before Council Monday Night

The City Council, meeting in regular session Monday night, approved the appointment of John O'Brien as assistant chief of police, of W. H. "Cecil" Smith as night radio operator, and of Harry Butler, as a permanent patrolman.

Approval was given the police committee to spend the necessary amount to repair one of the police cars. A better car is badly needed, Herbert Seifert, chairman of the committee stated, but there is considerable difficulty at the present time in locating a used one that is suitable for police use. He stated they believed it advisable to recondition the 1940 Chevrolet car now in use, even though it has been run 77,000 miles. Bids will be obtained on the cost.

George Stevens was granted renewal of a license to sell beer, wholesale.

A petition, signed by George Anson, and seventeen other signers, asking the Council to rescind an order discontinuing the dump on the old George R. Smith property, now owned by Mr. Anson, was tabled, on motion of Richard Keenan. The petitioners said that paper, wood and other articles salvaged from the debris, helped them earn a living. Frank Royce, second ward alderman was opposed to rescinding the order, and the motion to table was made by Keenan, also a second ward alderman.

Ask For Improvements

John Finis, 223 West Cooper, who was at the meeting with several of his neighbors, asked the Council to give some consideration to improvements needed in his neighborhood. He asked specifically for a street light on Cooper street, between Osage and Montevideo, at the location where Kentucky would be if it ran through. He said the alley behind their homes needed a ditch to control the drainage, and that one thing badly needed, is a sewer system. Mayor Wilks told him that it would be impossible to build a sewerage system now, because of materials, but that they would look into the other conditions.

John F. Taylor, third ward alderman, voiced opposition to the dump in southeast Sedalia, stating that the contract expires July 1, and residents of the community are insisting that another place be chosen for the dump.

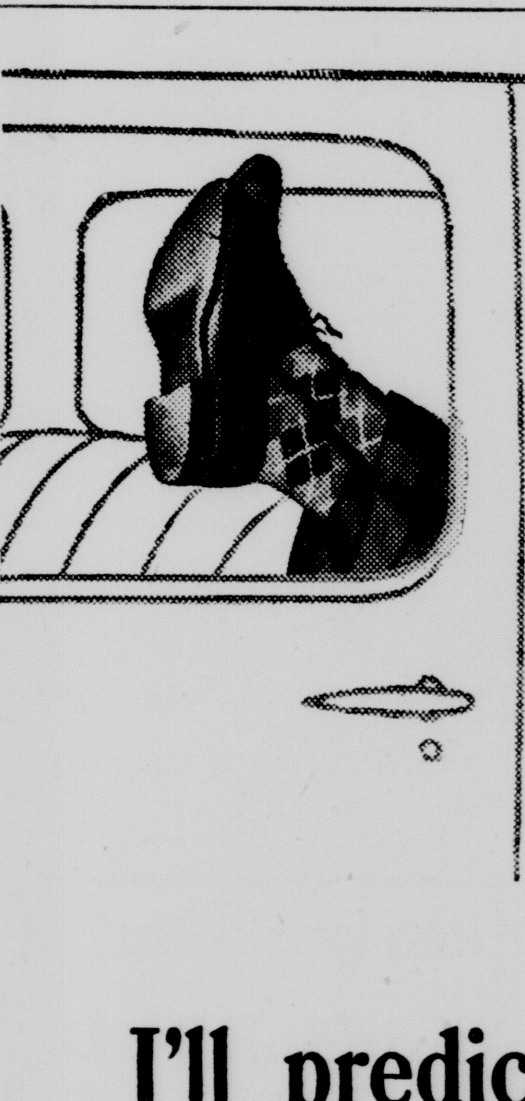

Fined For Lack Of Driver's License

Arrested on June 17 by the highway patrol, Van Gorrell Jones, who lives north of Sedalia, pleaded guilty Monday to charges of driving his 1936 Dodge coach without a driver's license, when he appeared in the court of Judge A. M. Harlan, justice of the peace.

He paid the assessed fine of one dollar and costs, totalling $9.70.

Bond Forfeited

Margaret Forster, 251 East Boonville, arrested by the police for disturbing the peace on Lamine avenue, between Second and Third streets failed to appear before Magistrate C. W. Bente, in police court Monday morning and her bond of $10 was ordered forfeited.

You'll see every repair shop crowded for months, but I'm figuring to duck that! Of course, I couldn't see everything coming when I originally had this engine OIL-PLATED. You can suit yourself about thinking it's the only oil or not, but first read the whole label. You'll see where Conoco Nth oil's special synthetic fastens OIL-PLATING to your engine's fine inside finish. Then OIL-PLATING is really sort of a special surface to block steady acid corrosion.
